

Welcome to happyonchappy.com

Chappaquiddick Island (Chappy) is a small island off the eastern end of the larger island of Martha's Vineyard.

A small, barge-like ferry (The Chappy Ferry) shuttles between Chappaquiddick and the town of Edgartown, carrying cars and passengers, a very long 3 minute ride! (<http://www.chappyferry.net/> )

The island has only 150 year round residents and 350 houses upon its 5 square miles, as well as numerous wildlife preserves and beaches. Chappy has a small country store which is only open in the summer. Call for pricing and availability.
